Public Comment:

Joe Ryan

Daywood Court

Hubbard Lake, MI

Mr. Ryan read correspondence expressing support for the proposed Community Center, describing it as a hub in the community, and encouraged approval of site plans.

Note: There were 16 people who signed in as attendees for the meeting. A show of hands revealed all were present to show support for the proposed Hubbard Lake Community Center/Library.

Written Correspondence: A letter from Terry Owens addressed to the Planning Commission, expressed concern that she was not properly notified of the proposed cell tower, and that said cell tower did not meet zoning ordinance. She also expressed ongoing concern that accommodations were going to be made to enable the tower on original proposed site.

LeClair explained that the proposed cell tower was initially tabled as requested by the applicant and denied at a later meeting.

Board of Trustees Report: Hubbard Lake Fire Department contract. Workbee at the cemetery May 17th.

Talked about having a survey done at the Hampton Road property

Open house at North end once work finished.
