 Sarah Roe; Present Cindy Smith; Present
- IV. Approval of Agenda with additions, deletions, and/or corrections: S Roe made motion to approve agenda as presented. A Sobeck seconded. All in favor. Passed
- V. Public Comment: A. Question about results from speed limit monitor and if we received the results from the sheriff dept. B. Citizen waiting follow up on blight concerns. C. Citizen complaint on noise. We have no noise ordinance as the police can't enforce it as no availability of officers. D. Citizen complained about burning toxic materials. He called police and they made the neighbor put it out, but he re-lit it after they left. E. Citizen asked about bidding process the board uses for jobs they hire out. Citizen stated he was trying to filibuster the entire meeting so township business could not be completed.
- VI. Supervisor Report: C Apsey would like to thank Kenny Timm for removing the cement barriers in parking lot so snow removal will be easier. He does this free of charge. Cyndi also reported the material coming off US 23 will have dust in it because they are removing it to the Earth, may not be usable for RAP and repurposing of dirt roads. Cyndi also reported she got an anonymous complaint from Spruce Inquirer who stated S Roe could not have a post office job and Township position. This has been investigated and Sarah is cleared from the Hatch Act, State of Michigan election Bureau, and township attorney to be able to keep both jobs as this was never a conflict of interest.
- VII. Clerk: Elections went well, and the township had a 64.8% voter turnout! Cindy thanked all the election workers and praised them for there amazing work.
